Fire, wind and lightning insurance. Thomas & Woodford.McClure & Clendenin Join Lexington Real Estate Exchange.

McClure & Clendenin, the wellknown Fire and Life Insurance Agency, of Paris, have recently added a Real Estate Department to their business, are now members of the Lexington Real Estate Exchange, which is composed of sixteen leading agencies of that city.

These agencies will, from time to time, send to McClure & Clendenin buyers and renters for all classes of farm lands which can not be supplied from Fayette county.

This system will afford to farm owners in Bourbon county the opportunity of listing their farms for rent and sale with McClure & Clendenin, which firm will come in contact with buyers and renters, not only from their agency, but also with customers sent to them by the Lexington Real Estate Exchange.

This exchange system is being developed by the Lexington Exchange throughout Central Kentucky, and in the near future, McClure & Clendenin will also have buyers and renters sent to them by agencies from many other towns surrounding Lexington.

The office of this firm is on the second floor of the Agricultural Bank Building, and is in charge of Miss Grace Donaldson and James Winn McClure, who will be glad to list your property, and explain the many advantages of listing your property with this agency.
